PRESS RELEASE

For Immediate Release

December 8, 2020

Due to the continuous rate of new coronavirus infections in Genesee County, the 67th District Court is extending the temporary closure to the public through December 31, 2020 or until further notice.

The court will continue to conduct all court proceedings via Zoom and livestream via YouTube during this time.

Urgent matters may be submitted via our website @ www.67thdc.com or placed in the drop-box located inside the McCree Building, 630 S. Saginaw Street, Flint, Michigan.

Chief Judge Christopher R. Odette stated, "We've taken this action to attempt to protect the court staff and the public from the COVID-19 outbreak. This is a necessary step to contribute to the public safety."

The Court appreciates your patience during this time. For further questions, please contact the 67th District Court.
