67TH District Court Extends Temporary Suspension of
In-Person Court Proceedings Due to COVID-19

Effective immediately, the 67th District Court is extending the temporary suspension of all in-person court proceedings through December 31, 2020.

All court proceedings, including walk-in arraignments, will be conducted via Zoom and streamed via YouTube.

The court will remain open to the public for other matters (i.e. payments, filings, etc.).

Chief Judge Pro Tem Jennifer J. Manley stated, “With the steady increase of COVID-19 cases, it has become necessary to extend the suspension of all in-person court proceedings in the court. The safety of our community, court staff, judges and attorneys remain of utmost importance.”
