Elder abuse is a problem that many people do not want to address or even acknowledge, making it more difficult to provide protection and services to those who are suffering. Through community efforts and the untiring assistance of the Elder Abuse Prevention Program, Department of Human Services and other senior advocates and agencies, we will continuously strive to meet the needs of older persons who are abused, neglected and/or exploited. We are all committed to provide services for older persons who suffer from abuse and neglect, we provide advocacy programs for older persons in need, and provide awareness and training to professionals and community groups to increase education levels on all aspects of elder abuse. Currently, Sheriff Robert Pickell is advocating appropriate state wide legislative action to protect older persons.

Who We Are

The Office of the Genesee County Sheriff's Elder Abuse Prevention Program in collaboration with the Elder Abuse Task Force has developed a Committee dedicated to protecting the safety, security and dignity of Genesee County's most vulnerable citizens. The Elder Abuse Prevention Program was established in 2007 through the funds of a County wide Senior Millage and support from the Genesee County Board of Commissioners.

Dear Members,

Once again, the Genesee County Bar Association is partnering with the BEST Project to provide pro bono issue spotting services to Genesee County nonprofits. BEST works with nonprofits to build nonprofit management, development and leadership capacity through assessments, workshops and capacity building grants. One assessment tool, the Legal Compliance Review, has been facilitated by pro bono attorneys to identify risk management and compliance issues. BEST is seeking three or four local attorneys who would be available to review issues related to organizational documents, corporate formalities, conflicts of interest, tax exemption and fundraising compliance, financial records, insurance, contracts and employment issues. The Legal Compliance Review was developed by attorneys in partnership with Michigan Community Resources, an organization that provides pro bono assistance to nonprofits around the state of Michigan.

An overview of the Legal Compliance Review process and details about the time commitment will be presented on Friday, June 8, 2012, from 11:00 a.m. – 1:30 p.m., at BEST, 310 E. Third St., Flint, MI 48502 (located on the 3rd floor of the YWCA). Lunch will be provided. RSVP to me at (810) 232-6012 by Friday, June 1, 2012. Thanks in advance for assisting the nonprofit community!

Sincerely,

Tatilia Y. Burroughs, Executive Director
Genesee County Bar Association
